

WWW.PINTERSOCIETY.COM

VOL.6 / NO.1-2/SPRING, AUTUMN 2016

CONTRIBUTORS

RESEARCH PAPERS:

1. Dr Shweta Bali is associated with the Dept. Of English, Post Graduate Government College for Girls, Sector 42, Chandigarh. shweta.bali70@gmail.com
2. Nivedita Basu is Assistant Professor in English at Kirori Mal College. Currently she is pursuing her PhD in the area of nineteenth century popular culture and the title of her thesis is Melodrama and Modernity. Recently, she received the Charles Wallace Short Term scholarship for pursuing her research. She has publications in areas as varied as Children's Literature, Postcolonialism, and Visual Culture. niveditabasu24@gmail.com
3. Krishna Bera is a M. Phil. Scholar at the Department of English, Calcutta University. krishnabera88@gmail.com
4. Dr. Anna Stegh Camati has taught as Associate Professor of English and American Literature at the Federal University of Paraná (UFPR), from 1967 to 1996, and at present she is Full Professor at the Masters Course in Literary Theory at the UNIANDRADE, Curitiba/Brazil. She obtained her Masters degree in English and American Literature, at the Federal University of Paraná (UFPR) in 1978, and her Doctoral degree in English Language and Anglo-American Literature, at the University of São Paulo (USP) in 1987.

Her post-doctoral research, on stage and film adaptations of Shakespeare's dramaturgy, was completed at the Federal University of Santa Catarina (UFSC) in 2008. She has published articles in periodicals and books in Brazil and abroad, mainly on drama and theatre, and her recent publications include studies on textual appropriation and stage and film adaptations of Shakespeare's plays. She is co-editor of the periodical Scripta Uniandrade and of the Brazilian section of the digital archive at <globalshakespeares.mit.edu/brazil>. ascamati@gmail.com

5. Dr. Sudeshna Chakravorty is currently Assistant professor, and the Head of the Department of English, Susil Kar College, Champahati (affiliated to C.U.). She has received her Ph.D from Jadavpur University (June 2014). She is also taking special lectures (as Guest faculty) in the Post Graduate section of the department of English, Lady Brabourne College, Basanti Devi College and St. Paul's Cathedral Mission College, Kolkata.

Namrata Dey Roy is a lecturer of English Literature of Susil Kar College and an independent researcher. After completing her graduation from Presidency College, Kolkata and Post-graduation from Calcutta University, she has completed her M.phil degree from Rabindra Bharati University. bristi.roop@gmail.com

6. Abhinaba Chatterjee holds MA from Calcutta University and an M.Phil degree in English literature from Delhi University. He has qualified NET in English literature. He has been associated with literature and has published on diverse topics to include papers on Theatre of the Absurd, Politics of Sequencing Shakespeare's Sonnets, Indian literature in English and translation and Diaspora literature. His research interests are postcolonial literature with special reference to Indian and Australian literature, Translation Studies and Comparative Literature. Abhinaba Chatterjee works in the Ministry of Defence. abhinaba0000@gmail.com

7. Dr Ajanta Dutt received her doctorate from Rutgers, the state university of New Jersey, USA where she studied the novels of 20th Century Indian English writers. She taught for a while in Rutgers and wrote a book called "Landscapes and Languages" for the writing programme of the university. After her return to India, she wrote a book on Tagore's novel, 'Home and the World' and an annotated textbook on the poems of Pablo Neruda, Derek Walcott and Margaret Atwood which are taught in the English honours programme of Delhi University. Dr. Dutt teaches English at Deshbandhu College, Delhi University. She is also on the editorial board of a bilingual magazine, Hindol which is published every quarter from Delhi. ajantadutt@gmail.com

8. Anthony Faber: Undergraduate degree Concordia University, Montreal; Honours in English Literature, Major in Philosophy. Masters completion McGill University; focus on medieval and early modern literature; extended research paper, "Is this the promised end?' Lear, Scepticism, and Early Modern Literary Ends", where he examined Shakespeare's King Lear in relation to philosophical scepticism and early modern forms of pedagogy. Currently, a PhD student at the Université de Montréal with a similar focus on medieval and early modern English literature. anthonyfaber@icloud.com
 9. Dr. Vandita Gautam is an Assistant Professor at Motilal Nehru College (University of Delhi). vandita_gautam@yahoo.com
 10. Dr. Darsha Jani serves as Associate Professor & Head, Department of English, Municipal Arts & Urban Bank Science College, Mehsana. jani_darsha@rocketmail.com
 11. Bidisha Pal completed Masters of English literature from University of Calcutta in the year 2012. Her area of specialization is Modern and Post-modern literature and Indian Writings in English literature. Cracked SET 2014. She has successfully published poems and sent papers in different international widely noted journals. Presently working as a guest lecturer in English in Srikrishna College, Bagula, Nadia and Rishi Bankimchandra College for Women's, Naihati, North 24 Paraganas. bdshpaul6@gmail.com
 12. Dr Seema Raizada is Professor of English at MLB Govt. Girls PG Autonomous College. seemaraizada2@gmail.com
 13. Dr. Sunil Kumar Sarker is a retired college Reader with around a dozen published works on different subjects, two of them being on Shakespeare (vide Folger Shakespeare Library, USA). His e-mail address is drsunker@gmail.com and mobile no. is 9434961121.
-

14. Bindu Sharma works as an Associate Professor at the PG Department of English, MCM DAV College for Women, Chandigarh. bindubalisharma@gmail.com
15. Samrat Sharma is pursuing MPhil in English Literature from the Department of English, University of Delhi. shweta.bali70@gmail.com
16. Bijit Sinha is a Masters Degree Program Student at Hans Raj College, University of Delhi. hydranzia@gmail.com
17. Cristiane Busato Smith, PhD, is an MIT regional editor for Global Shakespeares and an ACMRS adjunct scholar. She received an MA in English and American Literature in 1995, and a PhD in Literary Studies from the Federal University of Paraná (the oldest university in Brazil) in 2007. She also held a Visiting Fellowship at the Centre for Cultural Analysis, Theory and History (University of Leeds, UK). Dr. Smith has delivered presentations at numerous international conferences and congresses in South America, United States and Europe. She has co-edited the journal Scripta Alumni and has been member of the editorial board of several journals. Over the last fifteen years, Dr. Smith has published numerous chapters and articles on literature and Shakespeare in South America, Europe, North America and Asia. She is the author of the book Representations of Ophelia in Victorian England (in press). crisbsmith3@gmail.com
18. Tenzin Yangkyi is an MPhil scholar at the Department of English, University of Delhi. tyankyi@gmail.com
19. Dr Chung Chin-Yi has published widely on deconstruction, has 4 years of teaching experience at NUS and is a Research scholar at the National University of Singapore Enigma719@hotmail.com

CREATIVE WRITING:

1. Aju Mukhopadhyay, the poet, critic and biographer, is a bilingual writer of fictions and essays. He has done some important translations on his way. He has authored 12 books in Bangla and 16 in English. His works have been recognized with awards by such bodies as

The Writers Bureau, Manchester, Poets International, Bangalore, International Library of Poetry, USA, Excellence in World Poetry Award, 2009 by the International Poets Academy, Chennai, Lucidity Poetry Journal, Sugar Land, USA and others. His poems topped the list of some e-zines and websites like asianamericanpoetry and poetsindia. Earlier he edited three little magazines in Bengali. He is in the editorial board of some Indian English Literary magazines. He regularly writes in magazines, e-zines and occasionally in newspapers. Many of his works have been translated in other languages and anthologized. More than a dozen of books contain his scholarly works on Indian English Literature and other Literatures. Five books contain critique on his poetry. He is a member of the Research Board of Advisors of the American Biographical Institute who offered him the American Order of Merit. www.ajumukhopadhyay.com
ajum24@gmail.com

2. Dr. Yogesh Kumar Sharma belongs to Khurja, Distt. Bulandshahr, Utter Pradesh. His education was held at Khurja and higher education, (M.A., M.Phil., Ph.D.) at Institute of Advanced Studies, Meerut University Meerut, U. P. His research work Influence of Bhagawad Gita on Matthew Arnold is considered as outstanding scholarly work in literary circles. As present he is working as Associate Professor in Swami Shradhanand College, (University of Delhi), Alipur, Delhi-110036. Dr. Yogesh Sharma has published several articles on a number of authors and subjects. His articles, short stories and poems on different topics have found place in a number of newspapers, magazines and journals. He has written many poems (more than 500) on different aspects of society concerning day to day life of the people. yogesh_krsharma@yahoo.com
 3. P.V. Geetha Lakshmi Patnaik is working as an Associate Professor of English at Government Degree College, Khairatabad, Hyderabad. She has eighteen years of teaching experience at the undergraduate level and is a Teacher-Trainer, certified by the State Commissionerate of Collegiate Education and the U.S. State Department. She has completed a U.G.C. sponsored Minor Research Project on the topic "Gender in Science Fiction with Specific Reference to Isaac Asimov and Ursula K. LeGuin" and is currently working on her Ph.D. from Osmania University, Hyderabad, on selected women writers of detective fiction. Her research interests include English Language Teaching, Gender Studies and Popular Culture Studies. geethapatnaik73@gmail.com>
-

4. Stephen Joyce is an Irish academic and writer who currently works as a Visiting Associate Professor in the Dep. of English at Aarhus University, Denmark. He specializes in satire and tragedy and has published numerous popular and academic articles. He is the author of A River of Han: Eastern Tragedy in a Western Land, which was published in 2015. stephen_joyce31@hotmail.com